A New Green Haven in Woodlands!

Adviser Ms Mariam Jaafar joined residents to launch the Blk 622A rooftop community garden! The atmosphere was warm and lively as residents explored the plots, exchanged tips, and shared their excitement for this new green corner in the heart of Woodlands. This follows the successful launch of the first rooftop garden at Blk 671 last year, reflecting the continued efforts of our advisers, agencies, and Sembawang Town Council to create more sustainable and community-focused spaces across the estate.

New Detergent Vending Machines in Town!

Adviser Ms Poh Li San is excited to share a new eco-friendly initiative with residents. The Ecoworks vending machine lets you refill detergent and dishwashing liquid for just $3 per litre, helping households save money while cutting down on single-use plastics. Having creative green solutions like this right in our town makes it easier for everyone to take simple, meaningful steps toward sustainability. It's a small change that can make a big difference when the whole community gets involved.

Admiralty Zone 6 Children's Day Block Party

Adviser Mr Vikram Nair joined residents at Admiralty Zone 6 for a vibrant Children's Day Block Party filled with laughter and excitement. The atmosphere was buzzing as families enjoyed delicious food, explored the lively flea market and took part in fun carnival games. Children ran around with bright smiles, soaking in every moment of the festivities, while neighbours mingled and celebrated together in great spirits. It was a joyful afternoon that brought the community closer.

Mid-Autumn Celebrations Shine Across Sembawang Central

This week, residents across Sembawang Central came together to celebrate the Mid-Autumn Festival in warm and meaningful ways. Families held potluck gatherings at the rooftop garden, Buddhist students and residents shared a festive evening at BW Monastery, and lantern processions lit up both older estates and new BTO communities. The celebrations reflected the diversity and closeness of the community. Adviser Mr Ong Ye Kung shared his well wishes for good health and happiness with everyone, while reminding all to enjoy their mooncakes in moderation.

Mid-Autumn Joy in Canberra

Adviser Mr Gabriel Lam joined residents for the Canberra Combined Mid-Autumn Festival Celebration, where the community came together for a warm and lively evening under the moonlight. Residents from Zone 1 RN, Zone 8 RN, Skylife RN, and Canberra Sembawang Gardens RN gathered to enjoy performances, laughter, and shared traditions that captured the true spirit of the season. A heartfelt thank you goes out to the volunteers whose hard work and dedication made the celebration so special, filling the night with light, joy, and togetherness.

Sweet Treats and Smiles at Jelutong Harbour Park

Adviser Mr Ng Shi Xuan spent a cheerful evening at Jelutung Harbour Park, wishing the little ones a Happy Children's Day and handing out colourful popsicles as a sweet little treat. The park was alive with laughter as children played soccer and basketball, explored the playgrounds, and enjoyed quality time with their families. Seeing kids outdoors and engaged with one another was a heartwarming reminder of the joy that comes from real-world play and connection.
