A Pawsome Day Out at Woodlands Crescent Park

Residents and their furry friends gathered at the newly upgraded Woodlands Crescent Park for the Sembawang GRC and Sembawang West SMC Paw Party, joined by our Advisers. With the park's new fenced pet area now open, the afternoon was filled with excitement as families enjoyed being surrounded by the adorable canine attendees while having some pet-friendly fun!

Shaping the Future of Our North: Draft Master Plan 2025 Exhibition

Our Advisers joined residents at Causeway Point to explore the Draft Master Plan 2025 Exhibition by the Urban Redevelopment Authority. The exhibition offered a glimpse into upcoming plans for Yishun, Woodlands, and Sembawang, highlighting improved transport connections, everyday amenities, and how heritage and nature will be integrated into our neighbourhoods. Residents had the chance to engage with planners, ask questions, and learn more about how the town will evolve in the years ahead.

Unveiling of the Sembawang Learning and Activities for Youths Programme!

SEMBAWANG LEARNING AND ACHIEVEMENT

For youths program

Advisers Mr Ng Shi Xuan and Ms Poh Li San were delighted to unveil SLAY, Sembawang Learning and Activities for Youths. Bringing together all six divisions of Sembawang GRC and Sembawang West SMC, the programme supports residents aged 17 to 25 through talks, workshops and company visits in the Green, Tech and Care sectors. The first run begins this October in Naval Base and Sembawang West divisions before expanding across Sembawang, giving young residents the skills, networks and confidence to step into the working world.

Smashing Good Fun with Pickleball at ACE The Place

Pickleball fever hit ACE The Place as the Admiralty Active Ageing Committee hosted a friendly competition with about 60 participants. Adviser Mr Vikram Nair joined residents in cheering on teams, which included many in their 60s and even a 78-year-old player. The event showed that it is never too late to pick up a new sport and stay active together.
