Moonlit Magic at One Canberra Mid-Autumn Festival!

Canberra and Naval Base divisions came together as the One Canberra Family to celebrate the Mid-Autumn Festival. Adviser Mr Gabriel Lam and Adviser Ng Shi Xuan joined residents in the festivities of “Moon Lit Gems,”. Children charmed everyone with performances of Chinese poems and music, while residents took part in a lantern walk and put the finishing touches on the Under One Sky umbrella art display. The event radiated warmth and excitement, as lanterns glowed and hearts lit up with joy.

Vista Park came alive with festive lights, performances, and a variety of games and booths during the Lantern Festival, attended by Adviser Mr Vikram Nair. Over a thousand residents joined in the celebration, sharing memories and excitement with the community. A special highlight this year was a giant vase adorned with flowers made from reused plastic bags, created by our Community Arts volunteers, which will remain on display throughout the festive period. The park's illuminated displays added extra magic to the evenings, making it a memorable celebration for all.
