Bukit Canberra Hawker Centre Wins Favourite Hawker Centre 2025!

Bukit Canberra Hawker Centre was recently voted Favourite Hawker Centre 2025, and Adviser Mr Ong Ye Kung shared how proud and grateful he is for everyone who played a part in this journey. He talked about how the centre took years of effort, troubleshooting and teamwork to become the lively community space we enjoy today. While there's still more to improve, he believes the hawker centre will keep doing well as long as the strong community support continues.

Adviser Ms Mariam Jaafar is inviting residents to take part in the latest round of Improvement of the Year. Many of the shortlisted upgrades are things you probably walk past every day in your block or lift lobby, and this is a great chance to recognise the effort that goes into keeping our estate running well. We hope more residents will join in, enjoy the voting process, and help highlight the good work happening quietly behind the scenes. Follow the Woodlands Community Facebook page to vote for the monthly winners and see the improvements throughout the year!

Breakfast with Residents at 785E Woodlands Rise

Rise

The residents of 785E Woodlands Rise were excited to host Canberra Adviser Mr Gabriel Lam for a Breakfast with Residents session in their Edible Garden! It was such a meaningful session as the residents were proud to show off the fruits of their labour. Vegetables ranging from Nai Bai to Japanese Kai Lan were harvested, green, leafy and most importantly, fresh. It felt like a small but very warm gathering, and many residents shared that they're excited to see the space continue growing as a community spot.

Deepavali Lights Up ACE The Place

Deepavali at ACE The Place was full of colour and energy, thanks to Vetri IAEC's celebrations. Adviser Mr Vikram Nair joined residents as they enjoyed an SG60-themed programme that brought back familiar songs many of us grew up with. The atmosphere felt warm and nostalgic, and it was nice seeing families enjoying the performances, food and each other's company throughout the evening.
